Dear Mr Imber

Thank you for your enquiry regarding whether there are health and safety regulations which dictate if customers must wear shoes in pubs.

There is nothing stated in HSE legislation and guidance that prohibits a customer from entering a pub or other public premise barefoot.

I hope this helps, but if you require further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact this address again or telephone HSE Infoline on 08453 450055.

Yours sincerely

Helen Garon
